

Hundreds of made-from-scratch Honey Bunnies seek loving homes.

Great Harvest Café & Bakery donates portion of Honey Bunny sales to University of Virginia Childrens Hospital

Hundreds of adorable, made-from-scratch Honey Bunnies will be featured at Charlottesville Great Harvest leading up to Easter. For every honey bunny sold, two dollars will be donated to the University of Virginia Children's Hospital. These honey bunnies are perfect for Easter table centerpieces, for gifts and to nestle into children's Easter baskets.

"This is a Great Harvest tradition we look forward to every spring," Says Aileen. "The expressions on children's faces are priceless, and it's fun to hear about all the ways our customers use the Honey Bunnies as table centerpieces, as veggie dip bowls, or as a creative addition to an Easter basket. We're particularly excited to partner with the UVA Children's Hospital.

No two bunnies are quite the same. The artisans at Great Harvest, handcraft each bunny, which is crafted with the bakery's well-known Honey Whole Wheat dough. To compliment the Bunnies, wicker Easter baskets will be available for sale.

The students from the neighboring Covenant School will be decorating the Honey Bunnies with ribbons and jelly beans. Like all Great Harvest products, these bunnies are so fresh there's no need for additives, preservatives or dough conditioners. The kneaders and bakers of Great Harvest create the bunnies using five simple ingredients - freshly ground whole-wheat flour, honey, yeast, water, and salt. The bakery anticipates creating hundreds of Honey Bunnies, and is taking pre-orders by calling 434-202-7813. In addition to Honey Bunnies, the bakery is featuring Hot Cross Buns - perfect for brunch or as a light dessert. The bakery will also feature its popular dinner rolls and a variety of other sweet and savory items. Great Harvest is known for handcrafted breads made with freshly ground whole wheat purchased from family-owned farms.

The neighborhood bakeries create an array of legendary fresh baked breads and sweets, as well as specialty items during the holidays. Great Harvest Bakery mills its whole wheat daily, right at the bakery. The fresh flour is used within two days to guarantee the best taste and nutritional value.
